PHnw believes students are the future of our community, and so we have set up these significantly discounted prices for any registered students interested in joining in and learning about Passive House.

Students Must provide a valid Student ID and Email before confirmation of registration. After paying for your registration online, please send a copy of your Student ID from your ".edu" email account to info@PHnw.org, and we will send you your registration Information.

You will have to bring your Student ID with you to enter the event.
You do not need to bring a print out of the registration card.

See You There!

All Panelists work with panelized and modular projects and bring an amazing set of knowledge to panelization and Passive House.
Register Early, as audience size is limited!
