

UW CBE ARCH →

Arch 579 Technical Issues in Preservation Spring 2022

David Strauss

Maintaining and fixing buildings, especially old ones, require technical understanding: how buildings stand up, breathe, and decay. This course will introduce topics of building and site investigation, documentation, analysis, and preservation of existing buildings through case studies, technical readings, discussions, and (virtual) field trips.