

2022 DESIGN SYMPOSIUM

Every Friday, Winter Term: 12:30 to 1:20

Zoom:

<https://washington.zoom.us/j/99767413593?pwd=dXFJNkp3TWlRY1NRQlcvVeVBJSWldldz09>

Meeting ID: 997 6741 3593

Passcode: symposium

This weekly series of guest presentations address the physical, societal, and human factors that shape buildings, and explore the ways that integrated design is deployed to reconcile the competing forces that shape the built environment towards the creation of meaningful, functional, and beautiful buildings and places.

1 1/7

Rob Svez, City of Seattle
Fantasy Access|Egress|Refuge

2 1/14

Rachel Myer, Weber Thompson, Seattle
Rain and Stormwater: The Watershed Project

3 1/21

Bob Pielow, Fire Engineer and Code Consultant
Regulatory and Building Code Design

4 1/28

Lauren Gallow, Writer
The Power of Storytelling

5 2/4

Christine Williamson, Building Science Fight Club
Building Skins

6 2/11

Kate Simonen, Department Chair, Executive Director Carbon
Leadership Forum
Carbon Smart Structure

7 2/18

Jim Nicholls, Department of Architecture
Human Scale Architecture

8 2/25

Tom Marseille, Principal Engineer, the Sazan Group
Integrated Design

9 3/4

Myer Harrell, Principal, Director of Sustainability,
Weber Thompson, Seattle
Case Studies in Sustainable Design

10 3/11

Kate Weiland, Associate Principal BuildingWork
Recent Work